

Neolithic Revolution (Agricultural Revolution)

WHAT? The Neolithic Revolution is also called the _____ Revolution.

WHEN? It happened _____ years ago.

WHERE? It started in _____, but it happened all over the world.

WHO? Hunter-gatherers became _____.

WHY? Over thousands of years, the WEATHER changed. Temperatures became _____, so many big _____ died. There was more _____, so there were new _____.

HOW?

A. Farmers planted _____. Some crops they grew were _____, _____, _____ and _____.

B. Farmers domesticated _____. They used animals for many things.

| Animals | Use |
|--------------------------------|------------|
| cows, goats | |
| horses, reindeer, camels, dogs | |
| sheep | |
| sheep, cows, goats, pigs | |

7,000-12,000
Agricultural
animals
blankets
carry things
clothes
farmers

milk
plants
rain
seeds
southwest Asia
warmer

WHAT WERE THE RESULTS?:

A. There was enough food, so everyone did not have to be a _____. People had other jobs, such as _____, _____, _____ and _____.

B. People ate more _____, so they lived longer. They had more _____. People started to live in towns and _____.

C. People did not have to be nomads. They stayed in the same place for a long time. They built more permanent homes made out of _____.

D. They invented new _____ to use on the farm and to build houses.

basket-makers
children
cities
farmer
food

mud bricks
potters
tools
traders
weavers